ACGME Duty Hour Guideline Monitor

I AM FOLLOWING ALL ACGME DUTY HOUR GUIDELINES.	YES	NO
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

If your answer is no, please complete below:

Duty Hours	Never	Rarely	Very often	Extremely often	N/A
How often did you break the rule that duty hours must be limited to 80 hours per week, averaged over a 4-week period, inclusive of all in-house call activities?
How often did you break the rule that residents/fellows must be scheduled for a minimum of 1 day in 7 free from all residency related duties, averaged over a 4-week period?
How often did you break the rule that in-house call must occur no more frequently than every 3 rd night, averaged over a 4-week period?
How often did you break the rule that there should be a 10-hour time period provided between all daily duty periods and after in-house call?
How often did you break the rule that continuous on-site duty, including in-house call may be scheduled to a maximum of 24 consecutive hours with up to 6 additional hours on duty to allow for continuity or transition of care, scheduled didactic activities, or outpatient clinics?
How often did you break the rule that at-home call must not be so frequent as to preclude rest and reasonable personal time for you?
When you take at-home call and are called into the hospital, how often did you count the hours spent in-house towards the 80-hour limit?
Which of the following explain why you reported breaking one or more of the duty hour rules:	YES	Comments: <hr style="border: 0; border-top: 1px solid #00aaff; margin: 5px 0;"/> <hr style="border: 0; border-top: 1px solid #00aaff; margin: 5px 0;"/> <hr style="border: 0; border-top: 1px solid #00aaff; margin: 5px 0;"/> <hr style="border: 0; border-top: 1px solid #00aaff; margin: 5px 0;"/>
Because your patient(s) needed your expertise, skill, or attention?
Because you had to complete paperwork on patients, or other administrative work?
Because you wanted to work additional hours for the educational experience?
Because you had to cover someone else's work or patient load?
Because of a night-float system?
Because of a schedule conflict, such as educational conferences scheduled during your free time?
Any other reasons?
