

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

OSAT for Open Appendectomy

Ability to diagnose acute appendicitis based on clinical exam	Unable to make diagnosis	Needs guidance	Decision made on logical sequence with differential diagnosis
Interpretation of labs and CT scan	Unable to interpret	Needs help with identifying important lab values and CT findings	Able to read and interpret labs and CT findings
Appropriate pre-op antibiotics at appropriate time	Not ordered	Ordered	Ordered and checked that it was given
Ability to select appropriate incision site	Unable	Has an idea, but not confident	Incision planned appropriately
Ability to find appendix	Unable to find	Found with help of attending	In a timely fashion with organized approach
Hemostasis	Significant bleeding	Minimal bleeding	All vessels ligated before bleeding
Handling of tissues	Injured surrounding tissue, rough, visible damage	Acceptable, no significant damage	Gentle with tissues, no visible damage
Postoperative Care	Unable to write appropriate postoperative orders	Can write appropriate orders with minimal help, unsure of discharge instructions	Knows indications for continuing antibiotics and communicates discharge instructions to patients

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

OSAT for Open Appendectomy

Overall Performance	<input type="checkbox"/> Outstanding <input type="checkbox"/> Proficient <input type="checkbox"/> Fail
Attending Name: Signature:	Comments: