

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

Colonoscopy- Objective Structured Assessment of Technical Skills (OSATS)

Movements of hands on controls:	Many unnecessary movements	Usually purposeful, some unnecessary movements	All purposeful movements.
Force used:	Rough, dangerous, Uses excessive force	Gentle usually, Excessive force sometimes.	Gentle at all times, Appropriate but never excessive force.
Scope handling:	Looks awkward	Confident, competent scope handling appeared awkward occasionally	Skilled (expert)
Time spent in red-out (Absence of luminal vision):	50-75% of the time	25-50% of the time	0%
Reaction to red-out (absence of luminal vision):	Advanced without suitable caution	Waited/withdrew/insufflate most times	Waited/withdrew/insufflate all times
Use of Torque:	Never	Usually when necessary	Always When necessary
Patient discomfort:	Severe discomfort for >25% of the procedure	Minimal discomfort for 25-50% of the procedure	Minimal discomfort for <10% of the procedure
Reaction to patient discomfort:	Ignores discomfort, Advanced regardless of patient's discomfort	Stopped, waited, Withdrew (appropriate safety measures) most times	Appropriate safety measures at all times
Flow of procedure:	Hesitated often, unsure of what to do.	Usually confident, Hesitated occasionally	Confident, sure of what to do at all times

OVERALL PERFORMANCE	<input type="checkbox"/> Outstanding <input type="checkbox"/> Proficient <input type="checkbox"/> Fail
Attending Name: Signature:	Comments:

