

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

OSAT for Intra Osseous Line Insertion

1-Indications of Procedure	Doesn't know about the procedure and its indications	Able to describe one indication needs to be reminded of procedure as an alternative way of access	Knows indications, offers this technique an appropriate clinical scenarios, able to describe contraindications
2-Anatomical sites for procedure	Is not able to name the appropriate sites for the procedure	Knows only about tibial plateau	Able to name all 3 sites that could be used
3- Required equipment	Unable to name and describe	Knows about the intra osseous Trochar	Able to describe all the equipment needed
4- Use of aseptic technique	Forgets to appropriately prep and drape	Prep and drape with minor errors	Proper use of aseptic technique

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

OSAT for Intra Osseous Line Insertion

5- Use of anesthetics	Is not using anesthetic	Unsure if anesthetic is needed	Asks for anesthetic before insertion
6- Insertion	Unable to insert	Able to insert with guidance	Inserts without help and with confidence
7-Risks and complications	Insufficient knowledge about risks and complication	Knows about infection	Knows all risks and complications
8-Able to use for infusion	Does not initiate using the line	Needs help with using the line, knows about crystalloid	Starts using the line with confidence upon insertion, knows about all the products which can be infused

University of Illinois, Metropolitan Group Hospitals

Resident Name:

PGY: 1 2 3 4 5

Date of Surgery:

OSAT for Intra Osseous Line Insertion

9-Attempt to find proper IV line

Keeps using the line for infusion with no attempt to find an IV line

Needs to be reminded that intra osseous line is a temporary rout for infusion

Actively looking for a proper IV site since first few hours

Overall Performance

Outstanding Proficient Fail

Attending Name:

.....

Signature:

.....

Comments: